STUDENT BLOGGER PROGRAM
Details for the student bloggers

So your school or program has signed up for our international student blogger program — what next? Firstly, Study in the USA thanks you for joining and extends a warm welcome to our blogger program! Following are some of the details your student blogger will need.

RESPONSIBILITIES
- Be prepared to honor the 3-month blog submission contract.
- Submission due dates occur twice a month — a total of 6 blog submissions will have been collected and posted by the end of the 3-month contract.
- If interested, bloggers will have the option to renew for another 3-month contract after each previous contract is completed.
- Create blog postings on life as an international student.
- Visit our blog for examples on some of the topics previous student bloggers have written about. Our editor is also happy to work with the blogger on topic suggestions.

SUBMISSIONS SHOULD
- be between 500 to 1,500 words (max 2,500)
- include a short bio (i.e., "Saraya Student is studying communications at Blackwell University in Simmons, NY.")
- include a current photo (can be taken with a phone, but be aware of lighting so the blogger's face is visible and the background is not too overwhelming)
- have a clear, bold title
- be submitted as a Word, Google, or text document
- have all sources sited, if used
- be the blogger's own, original work (if the blogger submits a plagiarized piece, Study in the USA reserves the right to terminate our contract with the student blogger, immediately)
